

STATE OF INDIANA,

COUNTY OF Noble

SS:

vs.

James Taylor and Charles Brown

We above named defendants and Frank Celarek

and jointly and severally acknowledge ourselves bound to the State of Indiana in the sum of $2000.00

dollars.

If above named defendants

(the prisoner) shall appear on the 21st

day of

September

1949 in the

Noble circuit

Court, to answer a charge of burglary

and from day to day and from term to term thereof, and abide the order of the court until said cause is determined and not depart therefrom without leave, then this recognizance shall be void, else to remain in full force.

If the above named defendant shall not appear at any time fixed in his bond, the court shall thereupon declare this bond to be forfeited and notice of such forfeiture shall be mailed to 2002 Oliver Street, Ft. Wayne Indiana the surety, at and in County and State of Indiana. And if the surety hereon shall not produce said defendant within ten days after the mailing of such notice, pay all costs and satisfy the court that the defendant's absence was not with his connivance or consent, then and in that event the court shall enter judgment against such surety and certify said judgment to the clerk for record. Such forfeiture shall be without pleadings and without change of judge or change of venue. The obligors on such bond may except to the ruling of the court and appeal to the appellate court as in other civil cases, and on appeal the evidence may be reviewed. Execution shall issue forthwith to the sheriff against the properties of each of us to be levied as other executions are levied.
