

I, Irvin M. Cazier, Sheriff of Noble County, in the STATE OF INDIANA, certify that I have this day sold, by virtue of an Order of Sale to me directed from the Clerk of the Noble Circuit Court in a case wherein The Federal Land Bank of Louisville is Plaintiff, and William B. Fogle, et al., are Defendants wherein Judgment was recovered on the 5th day of June, 1934, for the sum of four thousand five hundred and six niner dollars and seventy cents ($4509.76) principal and interest to date of sale, and the further sum of sixty six (66) Dollars and six (6) Cents, costs accrued to this date; and the said Irvin M. Cazier, as sheriff, as aforesaid, levied said Order of Sale upon the following described Real Estate on the 20th day of June, 1934, to wit:

The North half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the Northwest quarter ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of Section two (2), Township thirty three (33) North, Range nine (9) East, containing eighty (80) acres of land, all being situated in Noble County, State of Indiana. eebl

And said Real Estate was regularly advertised according to law, for sale on the 21st day of July, 1934, and the said Irvin M. Cazier, as Sheriff, as aforesaid, did, between the hours prescribed by law, at the door of the Court House of Noble County, offer for sale at Public Auction the rents and profits of said Real Estate for a term of not exceeding seven years, and having received no bid therefor, he did then and there offer for sale at Public Auction, the fee simple of said Real Estate, and The Federal Land Bank of Louisville having bid the sum of thirty five hundred ($3500.00) Dollars and no Cents, and no person bidding more, the same was, in due form openly struck off to the said The Federal Land Bank of Louisville, it being the highest and best bidder therefor, and that being the highest and best price bid for the same, and the said The Federal Land Bank of Louisville paid the amount so bid by giving receipt for the amount of its bid, less costs.

The aforesaid Certificate will entitle the said The Federal Land Bank of Louisville the purchaser of the said Real Estate as aforesaid, to a deed in fee simple to said premises, in one year from the day of sale, if the same is not redeemed by the defendant, or any other person entitled thereto, paying the purchase money with interest at 10 per centum per annum, before the expiration of one year from the date of sale aforesaid.

July 23, A. D. 1934.
