

I, Irvin M. Cazier, Sheriff of Noble County, in the STATE OF INDIANA, certify that I have this day sold, by virtue of a certified copy of decree and order of sale to me directed from the Clerk of the Noble Circuit Court in a case wherein The Federal Land Bank of Louisville was Plaintiff, and Forrest M. Orr, et al., were Defendants, wherein Judgment was recovered on the 31st day of October, 1936, for the sum of six thousand five hundred forty dollars and forty six cents ($6540.46) principal and interest to date of sale, and the further sum of sixty seven Dollars and eighty cents ($67.80), ~~Costs~~ costs accrued to this date; and the said Irvin M. Cazier, as sheriff, as aforesaid, levied said certified copy of decree and order of sale upon the following described Real Estate on the 10th day of December, 1936, to wit:

The East half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the Northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of Section thirty two (32), Township thirty three (33) North, Range eleven (11) East, containing eighty (80) acres, more or less.

And said Real Estate was regularly advertised according to law, for sale on the 2nd day of January, 1937, and the said Irvin M. Cazier, as Sheriff, as aforesaid, did, between the hours prescribed by law, at the door of the Court House of Noble County, offer for sale at Public Auction the rents and profits of said Real Estate for a term of not exceeding seven years, and having received no bid therefor, he did then and there offer for sale at Public Auction the fee simple of said Real Estate, and The Federal Land Bank of Louisville having bid the sum of Five thousand eight hundred fifty four Dollars and ninety cents ($5854.90) ~~Cents~~, and no person bidding more, the same was in due form openly struck off to the said The Federal Land Bank of Louisville, it being the highest and best bidder therefor, and that being the highest and best price bid for the same, and the said The Federal Land Bank of Louisville paid the amount so bid by paying costs and giving receipt for amount of bid less costs.

The aforesaid certificate will entitle the said The Federal Land Bank of Louisville, the purchaser of the said Real Estate, as aforesaid, to a deed in fee simple to said premises, in one year from the day of sale, if the same is not redeemed by the defendant, or any other person entitled thereto, paying the purchase money with interest at 10 per centum per annum, before the expiration of one year from the date of sale aforesaid.

January 2, A. D. 1937.

Irvin M. Cazier
