No. 11635. The Farmers State Bank

vs

Carl Gappinger, Jennie M. Gappinger,
Allie Gappinger, Orville E. Pressler
and Revah Pressler.

} On Note and to foreclose mortgage

Comes now said plaintiff by Martin H. Spangler, its attorney, and said plaintiff now shows to the satisfaction of the court by the summons heretofore issued in this behalf upon its complaint herein, and the return of said Sheriffs thereon endorsed, and the court now finds that each and all of the defendants to this cause of action and said complaint have been duly and legally served with due and legal summons in this cause more than ten days before the 28th day of October, 1932, the return day of said summons, which said summons and return thereon endorsed are severally in the following words and figures, to-wit: (here insert) And there being no appearance by, or on behalf of, any of the defendants to this action and said complaint, thereupon, on motion of said plaintiff each and all the defendants to this action and said complaint are each and severally three times duly called in open court, come not, but herein each and all wholly make default. And on motion of said plaintiff, this cause is now submitted to the court for trial without a jury. And thereupon the trial of this cause commences, proceeds and is concluded. And the court having heard all the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds for said plaintiff that each and all the statements and allegations of its said complaint herein contained are true and fully proven; that there is due said plaintiff from the defendants Carl Gappinger and Allie Gappinger on the note and mortgage sued upon herein, and set out and described in plaintiff's complaint the sum of Two Hundred ninety and 81/100 dollars without relief from valuation and appraisement laws and that said plaintiff is entitled to and should have a judgment therefor herein accordingly. And the court further finds that plaintiff's said mortgage set out and described in said complaint and the mortgage debt secured thereby is a valid, subsisting and first lien upon all the real estate in said mortgage described, prior, superior and paramount to any and all rights, titles, interests, liens and claims of whatsoever nature or kind of each and all of the defendants to this action therein, thereon or thereto, and that said plaintiff is entitled to and should have a judgment, order and decree herein for the foreclosure of said mortgage upon all the real estate therein described as against said defendants to this action and a judgment, order and decree for the sale of all of said real estate or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay and satisfy said mortgage debt and costs.

It is now therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that said plaintiff, The Farmers State Bank, do have and recover herein from the defendants, Carl Gappinger and Allie Gappinger the sum of Two Hundred ninety and 81/100 dollars ($290.81) so found to be due it on its said note and mortgage sued upon by it herein as aforesaid, and also all its costs in this cause expended taxed at dollars and cents, said judgment and amount to draw interest at the rate of 8% per annum from this date until paid, all without any relief whatever from valuation and appraisement laws.

And it is further considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that said plaintiff's said mortgage and the mortgage debt secured thereby is a valid and subsisting and first lien on all the real estate in said mortgage described, prior, superior and paramount to any and all rights, titles, interests, liens and claims of each and all of the defendants to this action therein, thereon or thereto, and that said mortgage be, and the same hereby is, foreclosed on all the real estate therein described as to and against each and all of the defendants to this cause of action and all persons claiming from, under or through them, or any of them, and that upon default in the full payment and satisfaction of plaintiff's said mortgage debt and costs before the time fixed for such sale, all of the real estate in said mortgage described, to-wit: east half of the northwest quarter of section four (4) in township thirty three (33) north, range ten (10) east, Noble County, Indiana; or so much thereof as may be necessary, and all the rights, titles, interests and claims of the defendants to this cause of action and each and every one of them and all persons claiming from, under or through them, or any of them, in and to the same, shall be sold as provided by law by the Sheriff of said Noble County upon a duly certified copy of the judgment, order and decree herein under the hand of the Clerk and the seal of this court, after first duly advertising the same as provided by law, in like manner as lands are sold upon execution issued upon judgments at law for the payment of plaintiff's said mortgage debt and costs; that such sale be made without any relief whatever from valuation and appraisement laws, and that the proceeds arising therefrom shall be applied as follows, to-wit: First, to the payment of all costs accrued in this cause of action including the costs of such sale; Second, to the payment of said mortgage debt and judgment, principal and interest of said plaintiff, and Third, the overplus, if any remaining, shall be paid to the party or parties thereto entitled by law.

And it is further considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that upon the final consummation of the sale herein ordered and the completed conveyance by the Sheriff to the purchaser or purchasers of the real estate so sold, all the rights, titles, interests, claims and equity of redemption of the defendants to this action and each and every one of them, and of all persons claiming from, under or through them, or any of them, in and to said real estate so sold and conveyed, shall be completely and absolutely and forever barred and foreclosed.

And it is further considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that in the event all of said mortgaged real estate hereinbefore described shall fail to sell for a sum sufficient to fully pay and satisfy said mortgage debt, judgment lien, principal and interest, costs and accruing costs of said plaintiff, the balance thereof remaining unpaid shall be levied of any property of said defendants, Carl Gappinger and Allie Gappinger, subject to execution and sale thereof shall be made without any relief from valuation and appraisement laws.

All of which is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court.
